Key Terms

Additional Child Tax Credit: A credit that may be taken if the full amount of the child tax credit cannot be claimed.

Adjusted Gross Income (AGI): The taxpayer's total adjusted gross income (AGI) is the amount that is used to compute some limitations, such as the medical and dental deduction on Schedule A and the credit for child and dependent care expenses.

Child Tax Credit: A credit that may reduce tax by as much as $2,000 for each qualifying child.

Credit for Other dependents: There is a $500 credit for other dependents who do not qualify for the $2,000 child tax credit.

Form 8332: Release/Revocation of Release of Claim to Exemption for Child by Custodial Parent. This form allows a taxpayer who is a custodial parent to release the claim on the child's exemption to the noncustodial parent.

Schedule 8812: Additional Child Tax Credit. The taxpayer may be able to qualify for the refundable additional child tax credit on this schedule.

Nonrefundable Credit: A nonrefundable credit can only reduce the tax liability to zero. Any excess credit is not refunded to the taxpayer.

Qualifying Child: To be identified as a qualifying child and dependent, a person must meet these tests: U.S. citizen or resident test, Joint return test, Dependent taxpayer test, Relationship test, Age test, Support test, Residence test, and Qualifying child of more than one person test.

Refundable Credit: Occurs when the amount of a credit is greater than the tax owed. Taxpayers not only can have their tax reduced to zero; they can also receive a "refund" of excess credit.

don't meet the residency requirements can claim the additional child tax credit.

Discuss when the dependent is not eligible for the child tax credit they may be eligible for the nonrefundable $500 credit for other dependents.

Who Can Claim the Credit

Review each of the steps in Pub 4012, Child Tax Credit Table 1 with class and emphasize the difference in the age test for this credit vs. the age test for a qualifying dependent.

Emphasize that to be a qualifying child for the child tax credit, the child must be claimed as the taxpayer's dependent.

Point out that TaxSlayer automatically determines if a dependent is eligible for the Child Tax Credit based on the information entered in the tax return

Ask: If the parents are divorced, can the noncustodial parent ever claim the child tax credit? Answer: Yes. In most cases, the qualifying child is considered the dependent of the custodial parent. However, the noncustodial parent may be entitled to claim the child tax credit and additional child tax credit for the qualifying child if the custodial parent provides them with Form 8332.

Ask: When is Form 8332 required?

Answer: When a custodial parent releases the dependency exemption (and therefore the child tax credit) to the noncustodial parent.

Point out that a taxpayer who does not qualify for the nonrefundable child tax credit might qualify for the refundable additional child tax credit.

Ask: If taxpayer has ever had credit disallowed.
